THE STORY BEHIND THE STORY: A JOURNEY OF MYSTIC PROPORTIONS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. From the get-go the writing of 'They Are My Song' was a mite odd. Upon giving a Voice to Sidhelagh, one of the characters, in order to provide a first-person account of the big paintings that this project was SUPPOSED to consist of, author Shiela Branson was a bit taken aback when not only Sidhelagh but Danann, Mamm, and all of the others 'insisted' on having a say - The art project turned itself into a book - and the Characters took the bit in their collective mouth were off and running the whole show. "Mostly I felt as though my role consisted simply of being a recording device for these Characters. It was kind of hard to keep up with them. A scene would get written, right? And then the Characters' Voices would bring in elements that were unexpected, changing the whole tone of the scene and in the end, the entire meaning of the book itself." As the research became more fascinating, Shiela found herself developing first an unanticipated respect for these people of the ancient days, which quickly became almost an awe. Unprepared for the validation of some of the details she THOUGHT she was making up out of her head, and even more by the confirmation of details that the Character Voices just seemed to pop into the story (she left them in although they didn't make much sense to her) Shiela was getting a little spooked by the whole thing. "I'd write in something that I figured was nothing but creative writing; then, while researching something completely different, up would pop an archaeological report or an ancient manuscript and I'd be sitting there - stunned at what I was seeing." ...
